Yo Bonita

My love & don't have much to say that is on paper. You know how that is. But all I want to tell you, this last year and five months with you have been the best days in my life. So I hope we will have so many days and days and days and days in front of us. I'm sorry I wasn't around more but I still said a lot of sweet things, didn't I? Oh! yes I still mean it either. So stay as beautiful as you are for me and forever more always & mean always. Just & guess I'm sorry for me

Page, But I still said I'm sorry for me always

Stay

To Mr. Everhart,
a twenty-one gun salute!

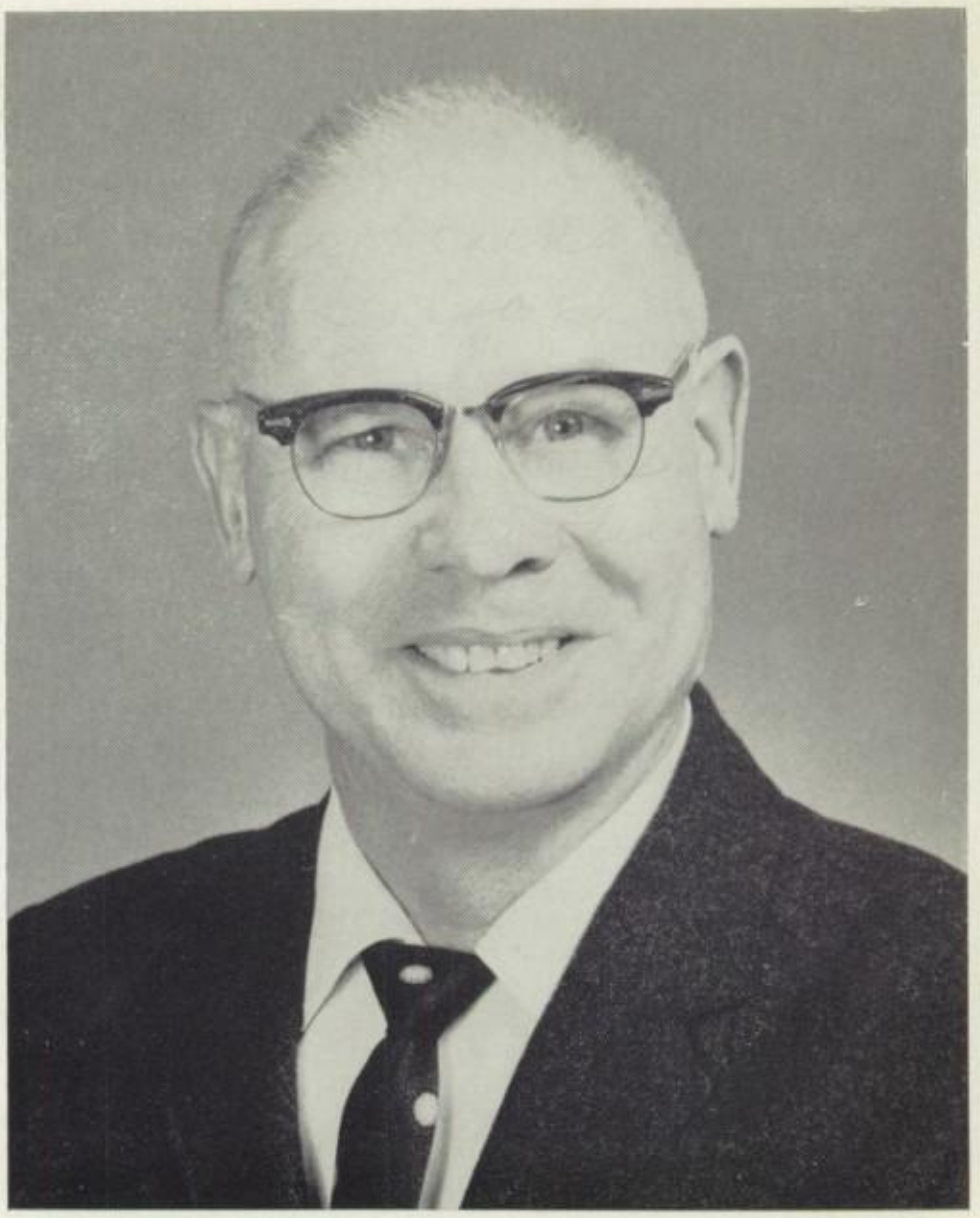
It is with deep respect that the Class of 1965 dedicates the Edelian to Mr. William Everhart, for twenty years head of the English Department and a Libbey teacher for thirty years. An excellent teacher in all areas of English, perhaps Mr. Everhart has made his greatest contribution to education at Libbey in the fields of speech and creative writing.

Having received his early education in Pennsylvania and Michigan public schools, Mr. Everhart received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education from Eastern Michigan University; he has done graduate work at Wayne University, Pennsylvania State College, Detroit Teachers College, Lock Haven Teachers College, and Toledo University.

In addition to his duties in the English Department, Mr. Everhart has served Libbey in other ways, having been at various times track coach, cross-country coach, freshman basketball coach, and equipment manager. For many years he has been employed by the Toledo Summer Recreation Division, where he is now holding the position of District Supervisor.

He is a member of Grace Lutheran Church and belongs to the fraternal order of Masons.

While Mr. Everhart is retiring from teaching in the schools of Ohio, he will continue to give students the benefit of his education and experience in the Michigan school system.



Mr. William Everhart

". . . But search of deep philosophy,
Wit, eloquence, and poetry;
Arts which I lov'd, for they, my friend, were thine."

—Abraham Cowley

A big smile for the students of 345!

We salute you, Mr. E!

Mr. Everhart encourages a lively discussion in the speech class symposium.

Dedication

PHILO C. DUNSMORE, Superintendent

Mr. Philo C. Dunsmore serves Toledo well as Superintendent of Schools. Citing his long and distinguished service to Toledo schools, the University of Toledo last spring conferred on Mr. Dunsmore an honorary Doctor of Laws Degree. He was subsequently honored at a reception attended by hundreds of well-wishers. Under Mr. Dunsmore's leadership, the Toledo schools have accomplished a most ambitious building program, and many instructional advances have been made.

On behalf of all the students at Libbey, the Seniors of 1965 extend congratulations and best wishes to Mr. Dunsmore.

Our

Members of the Board of Education: J. Arch Anderson, President; William N. Thomas; David R. Rittenhouse; Dr. Morton Goldberg; Mrs. Carol A. Pietrykowski, Vice-President.

"Libbey likes loyalty"! Our beloved principal, Mr. Loy W. Rusie, is a living example of this, Libbey's slogan. Certain it is that no one could be more loyal to a school or more sincerely interested in the welfare of all its students. His fervent desire is to maintain the high standards of a school that has given Toledo some of its finest citizens. He voices often his pride in Libbey students and their responsible attitudes. His office door is always open, and many students and teachers have had good reason to appreciate his kind and understanding nature.

Mr. Rusie, as a final gesture of our high regard for you, we, the Class of 1965, salute you!

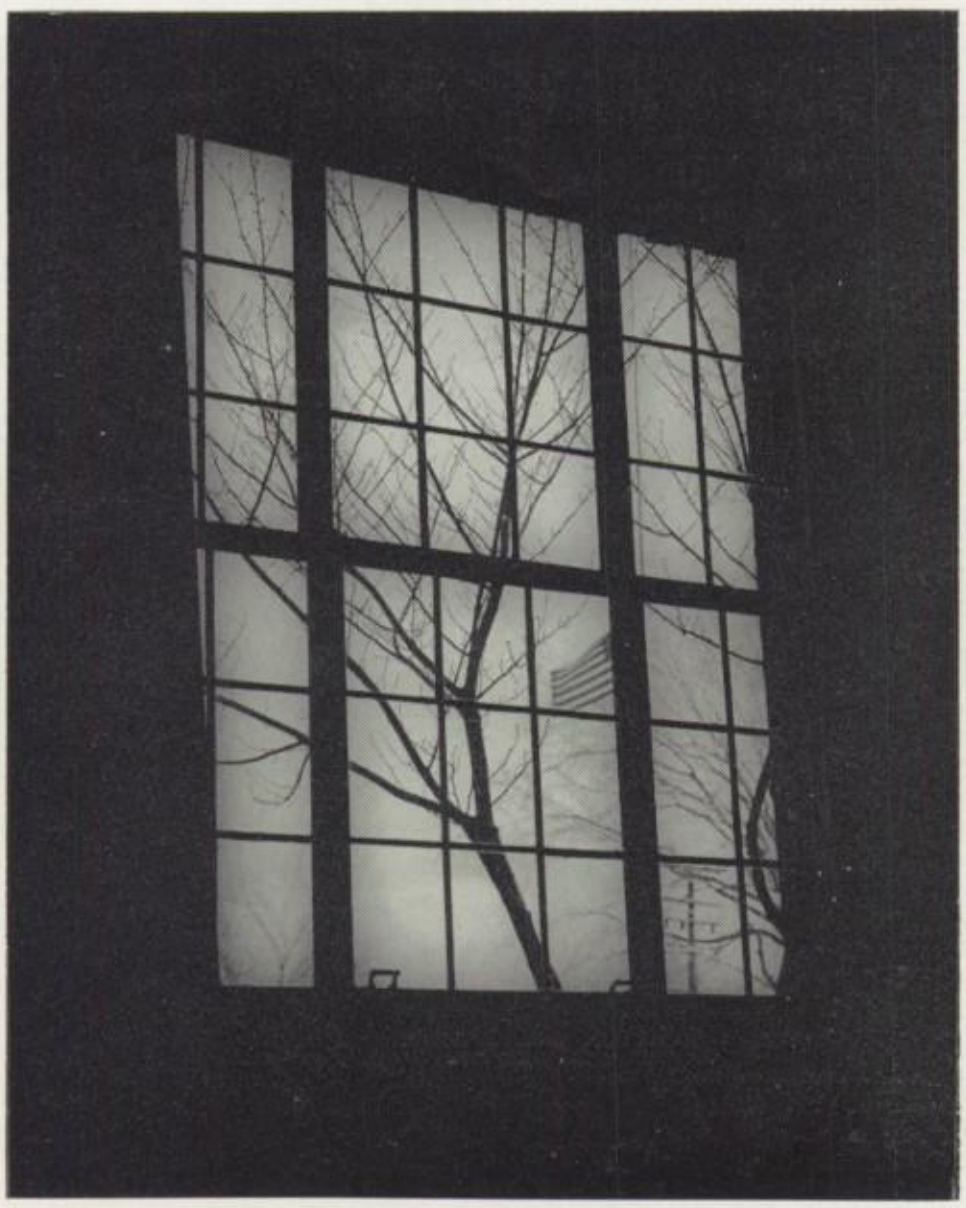
WILBUR RIPPEY



GEORGE FRANKLIN

In Memoriam

The untimely deaths of Wilbur Rippey and George Franklin shocked and saddened teachers and students alike. Both boys had earned a place of respect at Libbey, and Plautus's line, HE WHOM THE GODS FAVOR DIES IN YOUTH, seems particularly appropriate.

To their families and friends, the Edelian staff extend sympathy.

Senior Play

I'll tell you one thing — and that's not two things . . .

It's right here on paper. You're going on an all-expense paid trip to the Booby Hatch.

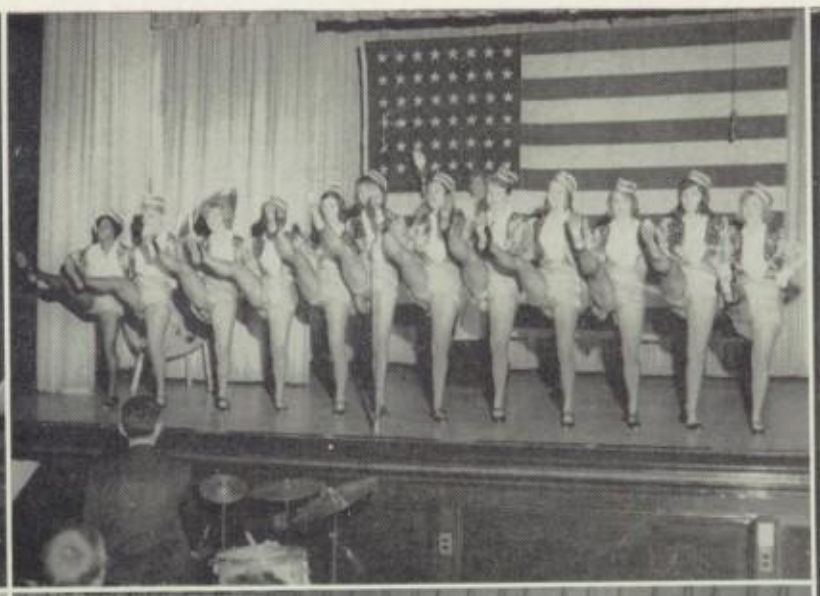
Say, whatsa matter with you guys? You look as though you've seen a ghost!

The whole motley crew who brought you "Gramercy Ghost".

You're daffy as a ding-a-ling, dearie. I don't see any man wearing pedal-pushers and knee-socks.

Stick with me, baby, and I'll keep you in lollipops.

Awwwww, look, Ossie, he rolled right over that poor lil' bug.



Rhythm Roundup

A parting glance at Libbey's famous Rhythmettes.

Wonder if Lawrence Welk will give us an audition after this.

Aaaagh! Hurry up with that song. My arm's getting tired.

Pssst! What comes after the second hop-shuffle-step-flap-flap?

Let's straighten up those seams, girls.

After you wind 'em up, how do you turn 'em off?

I'd simply die if my shoelace came untied.

She walks — she talks.

Ham on WRY.

Sylvieee, I'm so hot and dry after the third encore.

How about a little "Java" now?

Quick! Someone—a bowling ball!

Under the direction of Mary Fries, our hard-working pep band starts off another game with the national anthem.

Mr. Rusie thoughtfully takes in the action.

Even majorettes have to "take five".

"A vun and a too und a tree . . ."

Our majorettes (oops! and drum major) strike a salute.

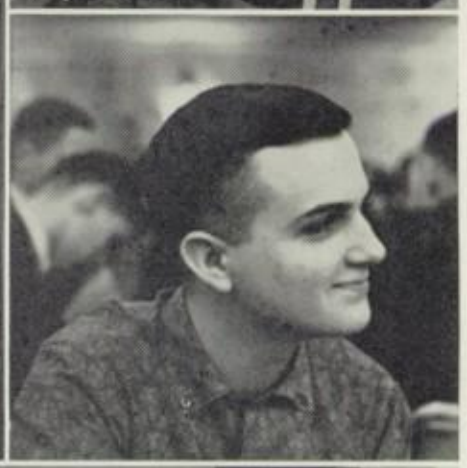
Necessary rabble-rousing equipment.

Linda Mayo received her trophy from Mr. Everhart. Linda earned first prize for Libbey's annual speech contest.

Character, Scholarship, Leadership and Service are the qualities portrayed by these students.

American Legion awards for outstanding senior boy and senior girl were given to Leslie Bothast and Libbey Loehrke.

Linda Keier twirled to victory in the Zenobia Shrine Circus contest.



Leslie Bothast smilingly contemplates his trip to Chicago for the 1964 National Conference on the Atom.

This year's top winners of the magazine drive.

Libbey High extends congratulations to the Valedictorian and Salutatorian . . . Leslie Bothast and Judy Hitchner

To Bonnie,
You and I have just begun to be good good buddies, I hope we will remain friends for a long time to come. Bonita you have the making of becoming a great success in life. I hope you always get what you want out of life. Stay sweet all your life. Love,
Bert

Libby Loehrke, Pres.; Sam Stover, Sgt.-at-Arms; Edward Cook, Vice Pres.; Treva Syph, Sec.-Treas.

Mr. Pfeifer inspired members of the Student Council to foster school spirit and to encourage good citizenship among Libbey students.

Among many other activities, the Student Council sponsored a rousing football mass meeting, the annual spring clean-up campaign, and the Homecoming Queen election.

The annual spring roast completed the year.

And whom are you taking to the dance, Mr. Pfeifer?

ROW 2—Bill Washer, Jerry O'Neil, Dave Knuth, Richard Krerowicz, Janet Opperman, Michael Pommeranz, Margaret Meyer, Joan Yorke.

The National Honor Society, under the guidance of Miss Lois Loehrke, strived throughout the year to be worthy of its purpose: to develop personal character; encourage leadership and service to the school; and promote the scholarship of Libbey students. To carry out these aims, the Scholarship Program was presented in January. The speakers were Jean O'Neil, a Libbey senior, Betsy Hill and Milton Pommeranz, Libbey graduates now enrolled at the University of Toledo, and Mr. Pfeifer, a faculty member who is a former Libbey and University of Toledo graduate.

Among the Honor Society's services to the school was the responsibility of supervising the class elections.

The club members put on a program for the student body in February entitled, "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad School" with members of the faculty starring as "students" spoofing classroom routine. This huge success raised money for a scholarship to a deserving senior.

The induction of new members was held in March; outstanding freshmen and sophomores were recognized and awarded certificates or pins.

EDELIAN

Another Edelian is being hatched

Getting the Edelian ready for the press has kept the staff busy. Write-ups, layouts, typing, name checking, getting advertisements, picture-taking, and the effort to keep the theme a secret, all contributed to a very exciting year.

In October, Mrs. Hunsaker and five members of the Edelian staff attended a yearbook workshop at Bowling Green State University.

The presentation of the Edelian to the seniors at the Senior Banquet, and the distribution of the yearbook to the underclassmen the following day completed a busy year for the hard-working staff.

CRYSTAL

The Crystal staff proudly survey the fruits of their labor

The second runner-up for the best printed paper in Northwestern Ohio last year, The Crystal continues to bring Libbey honors. The staff was composed of five boys and nine girls, who provided news and entertainment to the school all year. The staff had a Christmas party, attended a journalism workshop at Bowling Green State University, and went to an awards dinner in April.

Row 1—Casimir Drahiem, Susan Terrill, Brenda Pearson, Mrs. Warsell, Advisor, Rosemary Foster, Judy Dismuke, Darlene Heckart

Quill and Dagger Literary Society

Posters and banners for athletic games provided an introduction to Libbey's Quill and Dagger Society. Mr. Davis and Mr. Ewen, the club's advisors, have stimulated a greater interest in Q.D.'s among the club's members.

Service projects such as the donation of a Christmas basket were part of the program. A mid-term dance and a dinner were highlights of the club's social activities.

ROW 1—Kary Sauers, George Hochmuth, John Markland, Harold Hoffman, Bill Plontz.

Philalethean Literary Society

The purpose of the Philalethean Literary Society is to promote scholarship, leadership, fellowship, and school spirit. This purpose was successfully promoted under the leadership of their new advisor, Miss Dorothy Smilax.

As part of their service program, Phils decorated the cafeteria at Christmas and sponsored an Easter egg hunt for orphaned children. Social highlights of the year were the Sadie Hawkins Dance and the annual spring banquet.

Under the leadership of their new advisor, Mrs. Carol Staton, the Periclean Literary Society endeavored to realize their motto, Nulli Secundus, Second to None.

Throughout the year, Peris participated in such Tri-Lit activities as the roast, banquet, and dance. Their annual cherry pie sale in honor of Washington's birthday was a successful endeavor.

Two service projects, a Christmas basket, and the decorating of study halls for Christmas, enabled the Peris to do their part for Libbey.

Zetalethean Literary Society

The Zetalethean Literary Society, under the supervision of Mrs. Bonita Smith, advisor, and the leadership of Pattie Geier, president, participated in a year of whirlwind activities. Among these many activities were the annual banquet, the Zet tea, the adoption of a cottage of orphans from the Miami Children's Home, and the selling of Senior name cards. The Zets also helped to plan the Tri-Lit Roast and the Tri-Lit Dance.

Throughout the year the club invited various guests to speak to the girls. Among these guests were; Mr. Charles Martin, activities director, and Miss Shirley Stewart, the librarian. Members also made a study of contemporary American poetry.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers Association, under the direction of co-advisors Mrs. Jean Pritchard and Miss Carol Kinney, continues to instill in its members the ideals and responsibilities involved with a teaching career.

The Libbey chapter of F.T.A. headed a most successful joint meeting of the Northwestern Ohio Future Teachers Association at the T.U. Student Union in October. One of the most enjoyable projects of the year was making stuffed toys as Christmas gifts for the children at Maumee Valley hospital. The spring banquet completed another successful year.

Bible Club

Newly organized this year, the Bible Club has had a good start and seems likely to become an important addition to Libbey activities. Under the direction of Miss Shirley Stewart, the club participated in all Lenten Services. A bake sale provided money for expenses, and a picnic in May completed a successful first year.

Future Nurses of America

"Service to others and the stimulation of interest in nursing as a profession" is the motto proudly upheld by the Future Nurses of America.

An induction tea was held in November to welcome new members. Throughout the year, Mrs. Tanner, the advisor, related to the members of F.N.A. the fundamentals of nursing and gave demonstrations of various techniques.

Future Business Leaders of America

Conventions and state honors were highlights for F.B.L.A.'s club year. The scrapbook which was presented at the State Convention took top honors.

Serving at open house, the annual candy sale, and a Christmas basket, were a few of their services.

During the club year, the business teachers of Libbey gave their all in promoting more interest and understanding in the intelligent choice of business occupations.

Der Deutsche Verein

Der Deutsche Verein was organized to provide a more cultural background and as an exciting stimulus for those students interested in the German language.

Many activities highlighted the year for the members of the German Club. Induction proved to be a highspot this year when thirteen new members boosted the total membership to a record high. The third annual caroling party again proved rewarding to all, and members climaxed the evening with barbecues, chips, and pop at Sandy Sharp's home. Cultural benefits were acquired by way of another gratifying trip to the Toledo Art Museum and by numerous German movies. A first for the club this year was a banquet. Der Deutsche Verein has high hopes that this will become an annual event.

The close of another year was happily concluded among the sights of Side Cut Park where members enjoyed a true German "Wanderung" with all the American conveniences of Coke and hotdogs.

Le Cercle Francais

Royine Campbell, Sec.; Linda Mayo, V. Pres.; Ed Cook, Sgt.-at-arms; Jean O'Neil, Pres.; Lynn Suter, Chap.; Pattie Geier, Treas.; Essie Dickerson, Reporter.

In an effort to fulfill the purpose of stimulating interest in French and France, Le Cercle Francais has had two meetings a month, one for business and the other for a program. The club has been very successful in varying the programs, from reports on famous French people and skits in French to color slides of France.

The members also had the opportunity to go to the Toledo Art Museum as a group to see the special exhibit from the Louvre Museum in Paris. Another program of study was the exchange of letters between club members and students in France.

The French Club has quite a reputation around Libbey for having highly profitable fudge and brownie sales. The success of these sales and other projects is the result of guidance and help from the advisors of the club, Miss Bernice Krueger and Miss Beryl Ebner.

In support of Libbey's activities, the club was a sponsor of the Edelian and the junior and senior class plays. The annual banquet took place at the end of the year. At this festive climax to the activities of Le Cercle Francais, the officers for 1965-66 were installed.

The French Club moto is: En forgeant on devient forgeron—in other words, Practice makes perfect.

The Alchemist Society

Cheryl Mills, Treas.; Maxine Garner, Sec.; Alex McCrae, Sgt.-at-Arms; David Ostman, President; Tim Kruse, Vice-Pres.; Walter Tucker, Chaplain.

To further stimulate the interest of students in chemistry and its rewards is the aim of the Alchemist Society. With the help of Mrs. Grace Vermilya, advisor, the Alchemists had another successful year.

The intellectual activities included an interesting field trip to the Allied Chemical Co., and in March, a guest speaker talked on new products being born through chemical research.

An annual Christmas party and a breakfast held in the laboratory were among the social events that highlighted this year's activities of the Alchemists.

Y-Teens

Y-Teen Club has always been one of Libbey's strongest organizations. Its success is reflected in its motto, to build fellowship among the members, thus fostering the ideals of personal and social living.

Miss Smilax, their new advisor, has led the club through another successful year. Among activities were the city-wide Y-Teen Harvest Hop and an "Ugly Man Dance".

Y-Teens candidate, Miss Judy Meade, was the successful candidate for Homecoming Queen and with her court, was honored at the Homecoming game with DeVilbiss.

Palette and Craft Guild

Newly founded in February, the organization has some growing to do. It has a unique administration of three chairmen instead of the usual offices held.

Common interests and creative minds are the bonds of this organization which hopes to become outstanding in activities for its members, honors acquired, and services to the school. It will present annually in the spring an exhibit of student art work and looks forward to sponsoring other art activities for the school throughout the year.

Libbey

The Libbey Teen Club, under the direction of Mrs. Gloria Lindeman, fosters fellowship between girls with common ideals of personal and social living to which they are committed by their faith as Christians.

Our motto in Marching Band — "Guide Right!" The Libbey High "Cowboy Marching Band" opened the school year early — 2 weeks of pre-school training in August. Majorettes attended summer camps. New uniforms utilizing the cowboy motif were bought for the Marching Band.

Highlights of the football season: wonderful trip to Sandusky with the team; jazz and dance steps used by the marching band in many of their halftime shows; the traditional "long line" and "script L". Mr. Pachey considers this year's marching band the best so far.

In the spring, the band and orchestra displayed their talents with a series of concerts. Students and parents who attended will agree that they were a great success. The band will perform again in the Memorial Day Parade in May.

Social events included a roast at Pearson Park, an ice-skating party at Scott park, and a band banquet.

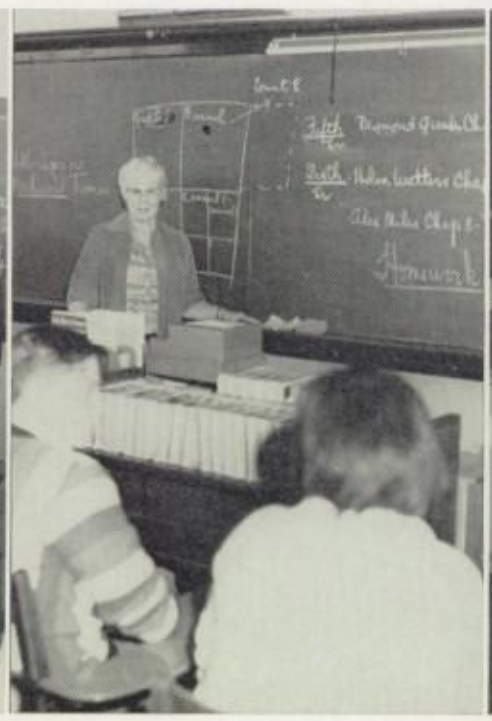
This year the Edelian recognizes a well-known group of students who spend much time in the service of the school. Mr. Martin's "little helpers" are seen daily scattered about the halls busily engaged in duties that range from taking Edelian orders to running the auditorium smoothly. The activities office is kept going efficiently by these people.

Mr. Vander and Miss Eberth: They really know their stuff.



Gee, Maxine, I know it's awful late to ask . . . but would you go to the Cowboy Roundup with me?

Mrs. Vermilya's 6th hour prepares a little snack!

"MUM" is the word!

What a jerk!

If the bell rings, we're in trouble.

Good, Judy. Now let's have Figaro, Figaro, Figaro!

Honey, when I fix a barbecue, I fix a barbecue.

Well, that's not how I learned it at Eddie Hanf's.

And the winner gets all-expense paid vacation to Siberia and a date with Lurch.

Well, not every play has three happy marriages.

These little ladies are the ones who take your tooth from under the pillow and leave just a measly ol' dime.

Look, Sidney, we KNOW you went lion-hunting in Africa, but MUST you carry that smelly thing around constantly?

Look, boss! Look what I found flying around the porch light!

So that's why Mr. Davis "looks up" to his students!

Which has the M & M chocolates?

L·O·F GLASS

THE QUALITY MARK TO LOOK FOR

LIBBEY·OWENS·FORD

a Great Name in Glass

TOLEDO 2, OHIO

What a wonderful Open World

Have you noticed schools like this on your travels? Probably, because new buildings are springing up everywhere. They are beautiful and functional structures with large glass areas to create an "open-world" atmosphere to eliminate the feeling of being boxed in.

Wherever you live, work, shop or travel, you'll find L·O·F Glass making it more enjoyable. In homes, motels, schools and stores. In offices and factories. In hospitals and churches. In cars, buses, trains and planes.

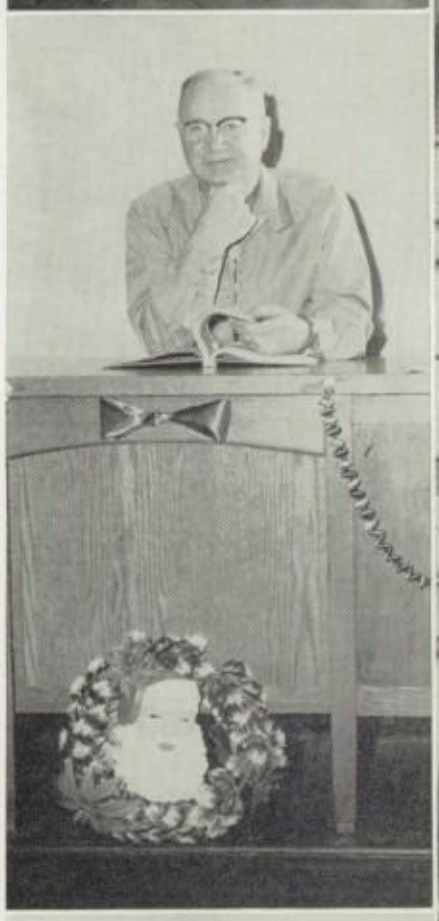
There's an L·O·F Glass that insulates windows. It's called Thermopane® insulating glass. Another subdues sun heat and glare. L·O·F Glass that makes automobiles safer. L·O·F Glass to do a thousand things.

And when anyone needs glass, there's an authority on it nearby—your local independent L·O·F Glass Distributor or Dealer. His name is in the telephone book Yellow Pages under "Glass". Call him.

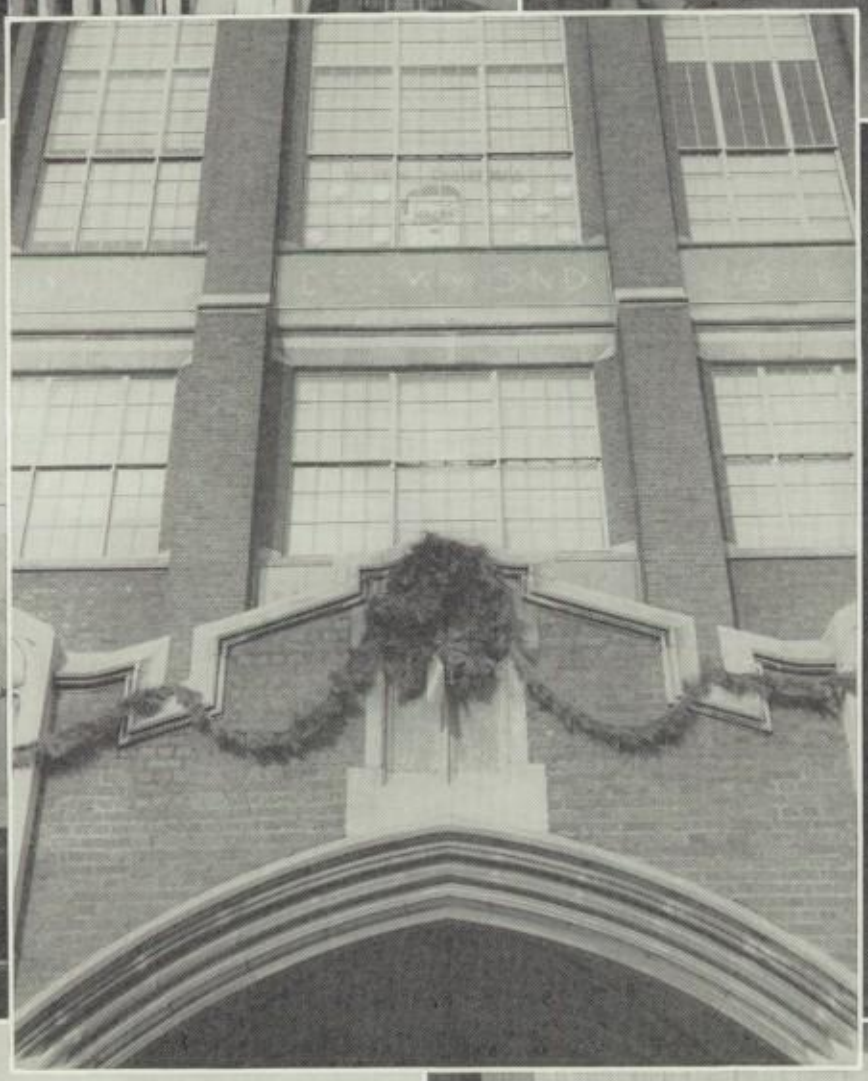
Laboratories, shops and studyrooms are separated from twin classroom buildings by a broad, central court, Ithaca Senior High School, Ithaca, N.Y. Architects: Perkins & Will, White Plains, N.Y.

When we run out of toasts to make . . . THEN we start on the doughnuts.

Stand back, kids. This is a molotov cocktail we're mixing.



How 'bout it, Mr. Jeffries, didn't the Peris do a nice job decorating the study halls?



The Zet's wreath and the Phil's Santa say "Merry Christmas" to the passer-by.

Libbey gives a Libbey Loyalty Award to Mr. Martin. After all, he should get something for wearing that beanie.

Merry Christmas to our photographer. It's an honest-to-goodness giant cigar made of rolled cabbage leaves.

Libbey's choir and orchestra provide joyous music for the Christmas Service.
